EXTRACTS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENCE.

A correspondent in East Rochester, Ohio. says, "The effort in Congress to force through the Nebraska bill is doing wonders for the Independent Democracy. I do not know a man, either Whig or Democrat, who favors the passage of the bill, in this part of Columbiana, Montrose, February 6, 1854. To the Editor of the National Era:

I ought sooner to have written you the fact, that the popular sentiment of this District is clear, and strong, and rising, in vindication of the rights purchased by the North in the Mis-

The disposition of many was to acquiesce in the Compromise of 1850, as a sort of necessity; hoping it would satisfy the demands of Slavery, and give quiet to the country.

and give quiet to the country.

No one thought the concessions we then made would have inspired it with such arrogant strength and guilty ambition; or that, in defiance of all its pledges, it should wish to spread its degradations, and crimes, and blight, over a wast Territory consecrated to Freedom, by the legislation and the popular acclaim of over thirty years.

Whatever may be the result of this aggression, it is certain that it has awakened dormant energies that will not soon be allayed. The South now has lost all claim upon our respect and confidence. The want of faith manifest in this claim is so gross and flagrant, that hereafter we can place no confidence in any promises they may make. Slavery stands up in the country—bold, defiant, faithless—making impossible demands, to which we cannot submit, until we ourselves are degraded to the level of bondmen.

But my object, more particularly, in writing. is to mention, that during our court, two weeks since, there was held at the court house a large meeting. Hon. D. Wilmot was invited to ad-dress them; which he did, in strong and eloquent terms. His speech was well or nerve the popular arm, and excite the popular indignation in resistance to these exactions. He reviewed the whole Nebraska question, convincing the judgment—and closed with appeals to the patriotism and justice of his auditory, that were responded to, loud and earnestly. Indeed, there is but one sentiment here—a sentiment which, I earnestly hope, will yet save our country.

Yours, &c.,

A GOOD SUGGESTION. GREENWICH, WASHINGTON Co., N. Y.

The Corresponding Secretary of our Free Democratic League has been instructed to send for a copy of the Daily Era, for the use of the members. As many of these Leagues have been and are being formed all over the North, would it not be advisable for each League (wherever there is a daily mail) to instruct their officers to procure a copy for the secretary of the contract of the co their officers to procure a copy for the use of the members? I can think of no one thing that would tend more to arouse the People, and concentrate efforts in the right direction, than the reading of such a daily paper.

Cannot something be done in this matter

In this way we can secure you from loss, and advance the cause more rapidly, by the greater efficiency of our movements.

Wishing you the success you so richly deserve, &c.

PITTSBURGH, February 4, 1854.

It is with no ordinary degree of pleasure that I this morning forwarded you the names of thirty new subscribers for the weekly Era. These men are all operatives in one establishment, the Pennsylvania Iron Works; many of them are master-workers in iron, and are shrewd and intelligent. I mention these facts to show our friends in other sections of the country, that the Free Democracy of the old Keystone State is being composed of the right kind of materials, they have formerly acted with both the old political organizations, but have become so thoroughly disgusted with the despicable time-serving sycophancy of their leaders, as to utterly repudiate their old fogy associates; and their cry now is, Free Soil, Free Labor, Free Men, Free Speech, civil and re-PITTSBURGH, February 4, 1854. Labor, Free Men, Free Speech, civil and re-ligious liberty to all men everywhere, and unligious liberty to all men everywhere, and un-der all circumstances. The signs of the times now certainly indicate a rapid growth of the Free Democracy in this part of our State. The introduction by Douglas of his infamous Ne-braska bill has waked up the slumbering en-ergies of our citizens to the bold and shameless aggressions of the slave power.

DAYTON, O., Feb., 1853. The Nebraska Bill seems nauseous, even to pro-Slavery men like the editors of the Empire. Let the traitors pass such a bill, and they shall have agitation to their heart's content.

UPPER PROVIDENCE, PENN. Feb. 6, 1854. To the Editor of the National Era:

Agreeably to a resolution, I forward the proceedings of a meeting, irrespective of party, held at the above place, February 4th. THOS. HOPKINS.

Pursuant to public notice, a meeting of citizens of Upper Providence township convened at Lumberville school-house, Saturday evening, February 4th, to express their view of the February 4th, to express their view of the movements in Congress to repeal the Missouri Compromise. The meeting organized by calling John Peters to the chair, and appointing George W. Suplee as secretary; when, upon motion, a committee of five were appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The following-named gentlemen constituted the committee, to wit: Thos. Hopkins, Jos. Fithwater, E. H. Nichols, William Davis, John Jacobs. Davis, John Jacobs.

Davis, John Jacobs.

The following preamble and resolutions were reported, and unanimously adopted:

Whereas efforts are now made to nationalize, extend, and perpetuate Slavery in territory declared, by a solemn act of Congress, to be probabited forever; and whereas history and experience alike teach that breaches of faith, become and institute in the control of t honor, and justice, in the representative or legislative power, tend to demoralize the pec-ple: Therefore,

Resolved, That all attempts to degrade the national character, through violations of a sol-emn compact, to aid in the propagandism of Slavery, is an outrage upon the virtuous intel-ligence of the people, by a grievous wrong to posterity, who must reap the bitter fruits of their fathers' crimes.

Rescived, That the avowed object, and practical results embodied in the Nebraska Bill, if successfully carried out, will be treason, in its worst form, to the spirit and letter of the Constitution, and of the declared purpose for which this Union was formed.

Resolved, That the present attitude of Southern politicians and their Northern aids clearly proves, that neither compact, law, nor the Constitution, is held sacred, or of any binding force, if it interferes with the reckless and remoreless aggressions of Slavery.

Resolved, That should the Missouri Compro-

miss be sacrificed in behalf of Slavery, a precedent will be established, by which all compromises may be buried in oblivion, whenever the People shall see proper to demand such action in behalf of Freedom.

Resolved, That, in view of the fatal wrongs which thicken around, we carnestly implore our citizens, by all their hopes of our country for the future, by all the obligations resting upon us as Christians and patriots, to maintain the truth and the right, to solemnly consider their position and responsibility, and, as their hearts and judgment shall dictate, so to act, independent of all influences but such as should are small the constitutions. overn just and honorable men.

On motion, a copy of the above proceedings was directed to be presented to each of the papers at Norristown, for publication.

A railroad from the remotest practicable point in Georgetown to the Navy Yard Gate cannot fail to benefit our city. It will meet the present demand, and it will increase that demand. It will, in effect, contract our magnificent distances. The interests of the central parts of the city will be promoted by it, and the interests and convenience of distant sections will be equally promoted. A residence within two or three squares of the line of this road will be almost as convenient as a residence in the very midst of the city. It will blend the facilities and pleasures of town and country. We know of no good argument in opposition to the measure. By whom it shall be consummated, and upon what terms, are altogether

An Actor's Funeral. - The remains of Mr. Charles F. Adams were yesterday deposited in the Congressional Cemetery, near this City. The Rev. A. G. Carothers, of the Fifth Presbyterian Church, officiated on the occasion. All the members of the theatrical profession in this City, and other friends, including the distinguished tragedian, Mr. Edwin Forrest, were in attendance. The appearance and demeanor of the company were exceedingly preposessing and decorous, and the religious services, including the remarks of the young minister, were appropriate and deeply impressive.

OVID F. JOHNSON, formerly Attorney General of the State of Pennsylvania, and of late years well known at the National Capital as a political writer for Democratic journals, died in this city yesterday afternoon, aged about fifty years. He was a man of excellent talents, of great aptness and energy, and of many estimable traits of character; but the enemy that still lies in wait for thousands lured him to his ruin, and he died, forgotten or foreaken by the friends of his convivial hours. He yielded to the Tempter, and perished; and yet the Tempter is protected by the WORMS! WORMS!

Various theories have been started relative t the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. McLane. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask for DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. McLane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

Cookery as it should be? Ah, well, that's a pretty bold title! And a dubious one, too, exclaims another, for if the authoress is going to tell us what it should be, that will be nothing new, for we all know by daily experience what it should and could be, but what it is not. Well, she tells you what it should be, and how to make it so; and in short, plain, practical, and simple rules, such as the result of a long and constantly active experience in providing for the daily wants of a large household, enables her to do in the very best manner. Every one who has eaten at our authoress's board will bear ample testimony to the excellent qualities of the many good things she daily sets before them, prepared under her own superintendence, and the rules for making which she herein sets forth. specifully gives notice to the ladies of Washing ton that she will remain in this city a few days, and will be prepared to examine diseases. Having been in successful practice since 1835, she can confidently ask attention to this card. So has paid great attention to the disease of action to the disease of the sets forth.

The recipes of the world-renowned Mrs. Goodfellow, for cakes, pastry, and sweetmeats, are now for the first time collected together for the benefit of all who desire to be good housekeepers.

In short, this new Cook Book is offered to the public as the best which has ever been prepared, and the publisher invites all housekeepers to purchase it and give it a trial, confident that they will recommend it to their friends as the only practical Cook Book of which they can make daily use in all their household on to the diseases of children. To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and nearly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasurs to the wearer, but often one of extreme tortore; this caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

TO THE CONSUMERS OF DRY GOODS Who Seek their Supplies in our Market.

ONE PRICE ONLY. We are now in our NEW O STOKE, which was creeted expressly for us. We think it the most comfortable and best lighted store-room in the city; and with increased room, facilities.

and experience, deemed quite ample, we shall dea FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

FOREIGN AND BONESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall sale cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price yetem is the correct one, and to their advantage: and we do not besitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price and interigent persons will after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good faith of the one price system, it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offer prices.

Our scale of prices will be so low, and the profits resmall, that we cannot and will not sell but for the cash or to customers who pay promptly. For those who purchase very largely, or to sell again, reductions will be made.

The public are cordially and most respectfully invited to call at all times and examine our stock.
